

Path Forward Community Fund 2023 FAQ

What if we don't have a project idea? –

Projects can be but do not necessarily need to be exactly like the ideas below. However, we encourage you to come up with a project/activity that will directly impact your communities' specific needs.

Building capacity, hosting engagement and facilitation, support to develop crisis response plans, materials for communication plans, information sharing and tools to navigate the justice and public safety systems, culturally appropriate safety training, cultural support and healing.

How can we find our corporation number? –

This number can be found on the Certificate of Registration that was issued to the company by the Corporate Registry when the extra-provincial company was registered in BC. This document is stored at the company's head office.

How much is the grant? -

The grants are of medium size ($100,000-150,000) per project.

Who can qualify for the fund? -

Applicant(s) identified as an Indigenous organization(s), Applicant(s) identified as a First Nations, Bands, and/or Tribal Councils, Treaty First Nation Governments, Métis Chartered Communities, Métis organizations or services providers, Urban / off-reserve Indigenous organization/communities(s).

How do we fill out the application? -

Apply via the application form on the Path Forward webpage, apply via video application, or apply by phone.

If you require visual help to fill out the application, please click the link below:

When is the deadline? -

The Path Forward Project application deadline is January 23, at 11:59pm PST

Path Forward Community Fund 2023 FAQ

What if I miss the deadline? –

The Path Forward Community Fund will reopen and or extend application deadlines should we not receive a sufficient amount of applications to process.

Can we fill out more than one (1) application? –

Yes, as long as the project outcome varies from the others.

When will we receive the funds? –

Approximately 6-8 weeks after the project proposal has been accepted.

What are the supporting documents we need? –

Scanned completed and signed application, Letter of Financial Signature Authority authorizing this application (government and for-profits only), Audited Financial Statements for the last year (if applicable).

Do you have more information? Please contact us? –

Email: Pathforward@bcaafc.com

Phone: 250-388-5522 EXT 231

Website: <https://bcaafc.com/path-forward/>